Angry China to retaliate over Korea's U.S. missiles

CHINA has said it will take measures against the U.S. anti-missile system being deployed in South Korea, warning that both countries will bear the consequences.

The government said it is "firmly opposed" to the system after U.S. missile launchers and other equipment arrived in South Korea.

South Korea decided to install the Terminal High Altitude Area Defence system in July in response to missile threat from North Korea.

However, China has objected that the system's radar can penetrate its territory.

Foreign ministry spokesman Geng Shuang said today that China will "definitely be taking necessary measures to safeguard our own security interest".

He added that "all consequences" resulting from that will be borne by the U.S. and South Korea.

The equipment arrived just a day after North Korea launched four ballistic missiles into the ocean near Japan.

But South Korea has said it was considering filing a complaint against China to the World Trade Organisation over what it called trade retaliations.

South Korean companies in China have reported cyber attacks, store closures and fines, while the country's media has called for a boycott of South Korean goods and services.

WANTED: Alleged crapper

PHANTOM SHITTER OF OLD LONDON TOWN!

A MAN suspected of defecating in the street a number of times is being hunted by police.

A member of the public reported the suspect after an incident at rush hour in south-east London, when he curled one off.

It is not thought to be the first time the man, aged in his mid-50s, wearing jeans and a grey jumper, has laid a cable in such a way in public. Police said they believe there are similar cases where he's squeezed one out which have not been reported.

The white man, who is around 5ft 8ins and of medium build, is said to have taken a dump at Eastlands Crescent at around 5.15pm on February 16.

Officers have released an image of a man they want to speak to in connection with the incident of outraging public decency.

GEORGE MICHAEL 'KILLED BY HEART DISEASE'

Coroner declares star died of natural causes

DRINK AND DRUG WOES: George Michael

By LURA HARDING
news@sundaysport.co.uk

POP star George Michael died of heart disease and a build-up of fat in his liver, a coroner has said.

The singer, who was found dead on Christmas Day, died of dilated cardio-myopathy with myocarditis and fatty liver, which can be linked to drug and alcohol abuse.

The 53-year-old, who had chart-topping hits including Last Christmas and Freedom, suffered health scares and fought drug addiction for many years.

Oxfordshire's senior coroner, Darren Salter, said inquiries into Michael's death are now over and the final post-mortem examination report has been received.

There will not be an inquest because the Wham! star died of natural causes.

He added: "No further updates will be provided and the family requests media and public respect their privacy."

Michael's boyfriend, Fadi Fawaz, tweeted a black and white photograph of him being embraced by Michael with the caption: "The Truth is out..."

Dilated cardio-myopathy, a disease of the heart muscle, affects how blood is able to pump around the body.

It can be inherited or can be caused by viral infections, uncontrolled high blood pressure, problems with heart valves or excessive drinking.

Myocarditis, inflammation in or around the heart, is usually caused by a viral, bacterial or fungal infection, while different types of fatty liver disease can be caused by obesity or excessive drinking.

Michael's former partner, Kenny Goss, has previously said he believed the star's body "just gave up".

Tributes were paid to the singer at the recent Brit and Grammy Awards ceremonies.

Coldplay frontman Chris Martin sang alongside Michael's rendition of his ballad A Different Corner to clips from his career.

The performance followed a tearful speech from Michael's former Wham! bandmate, Andrew Ridgeley, who said: "On Christmas Day 2016, the greatest singer-songwriter of his generation, an icon of his era and my beloved friend George Michael was lost."

No.10 'no' to Hague's poll call

THERESA May will not call a snap election despite former Tory leader Lord Hague's suggestion that securing a bigger Commons majority would make it easier to deliver a successful Brexit, Downing Street has indicated.

A Number 10 source said the Prime Minister has been "clear and consistent in her position that she does not think there should be" an early general election".

The intervention of Lord Hague (above) came as Mrs May was bracing herself for defeat in the House of Lords over Brexit, with many peers demanding Parliament gets a "meaningful" vote on the final exit deal.

The ex-foreign secretary said the PM could reduce the risk of further parliamentary stand-offs over Brexit if she won a "decisive" majority and warned her that different factions will inevitably find parts of the exit deal "difficult to stomach".

Lord Hague believes and early election will deliver a huge victory given Labour's dire showings in the polls.

Brit smoking at a new low

THE popularity of smoking has "dwindled" across Britain as new figures show the proportion of smokers is at its lowest on record.

New Office for National Statistics data show that 17.2 per cent of British adults smoked in 2015 – the lowest level since records began in 1974.

And figures from 2015 show the highest level of so-called quitters in more than four decades.

Statisticians said the prevalence of smoking in the population is reflected in the numbers who have quit.

Data for smoking habits across Britain in 2015 show that among former smokers, 56.7 per cent had quit – the highest proportion of quitters since 1974.

TRUMP HOOKER CLAIM SPY IS BACK

THE former British intelligence officer behind a dossier of allegations about Donald Trump has broken his silence.

Christopher Steele, of London-based Orbis Business Intelligence, said he was returning to work and thanked people for their support.

Ex-MI6 agent, Mr Steele was forced into hiding in January when he was named in connection with the controversial report.

The dossier contained politically explosive claims that Russia was in possession of compromising information on Trump, which could be used to blackmail or pressure the president.

It detailed allegations that the Trump team had multiple contacts with Russian officials during the election campaign, and that the billionaire tycoon had been cultivated by Moscow over a number of years.

Among its more lurid allegations was a claim that the Russians held evidence of Mr Trump hiring prostitutes during a visit to Moscow to urinate on a hotel bed.

Mr Trump denounced the document as "fake news", and its veracity has been questioned, with many saying it contained fabrications.

VIDEO HASTY: Fifth Harmony (below) took Zayn's gong

He has to hand his gong to Fifth Harmony

FORMER 1D star Zayn Malik suffered an Oscars-style humiliation when he was wrongly declared a gong winner.

You'd have thought the iHeart Radio Awards would have taken note after the Oscar's debacle but they suffered their own blunder on Monday night.

Zayn, 24, accepted the award for Best Music Video in his speech, after he appeared to be crowned the winner for his raunchy Pillowtalk music video.

By BECCA STUBBS
becca@sundaysport.co.uk

However, the gong should have gone to American girlband Fifth Harmony for their video Work From Home.

Blundering

Zayn, made a speech via video link and even introduced his 'co-star' from the video, model squeeze Gigi Hadid, 21.

He said: "Hello to everyone at iHeart. I'm currently in Paris, sorry I can't be there. A little birdie told me that I've actually won, so thank you very much.

"I'm very honoured, to everyone that voted. Thank you very much."

But blundering IHeart Radio later announced on their Twitter account it was Fifth Harmony who won the Best Music Video Award.

Rapper Ty Dollar $ign, who collaborated with Fifth Harmony on their award-winning vid, tweeted his confusion "Wait, we won?"

Instead of admitting their mistake, iHeart Radio simply declared that Zayn had won a previously unannounced award called 'Best Solo Breakout'.

MUSIC VIDEO DIRECTOR'S 'SEX ATTACK ON DRUNK GIRL IN FLAT'

By COLIN HURST news@sundaysport.co.uk

A FILMMAKER behind a star-studded documentary about a British reggae band sexually assaulted a woman after she 'passed out' in his bed, a court heard.

Yonathan Gal, 30, took photographs of his alleged victim with his smartphone during the attack on 22 March 2015, jurors were told.

The woman claims she was assaulted after she fell asleep at Gal's house in Kensal Rise, northwest London, after the pair met up for a meal and drinks in Soho.

Gal denies two counts of sexual assault and one count of voyeurism at Isleworth Crown Court.

Prosecuting, Usha Shergill told how Gal met up with the woman at a bar.

"They went for drinks to the bar and had some cocktails or shots," said Ms Shergill.

"They both decided to go back to Mr Gal's flat and took a taxi home.

SOHO DRINKS: Yonathan Gal

Flashing

"She decided to stay the night because she had to go to work in the morning and she felt she could get to work more comfortably and not in a rush by staying.

"En route to the flat they stopped off at a wine shop and bought a bottle.

"When they arrived she fell asleep in the foetal position."

Ms Shergill said the woman realised she was being assaulted in her semi-conscious state.

"She then describes the sensation that there were fingers touching her vagina area. She then became aware of a camera flashing and a shutter sound.

"She also describes the sensation of fingers on her breast area."

Ms Shergill told jurors the alleged victim did not wake up fully until the alarm went off in the morning, and only became aware of what happened after work.

"She then messaged her friendship group that she was very sure something happened.

"One of her friends convinced her to take the matter further and report it."

The complainant gave a video interview to police on March 25 and Gal was arrested.

His phone was seized and photographs were found.

Ms Shergill said: "There were pictures of a female in a yellow top, black leggings and knickers.

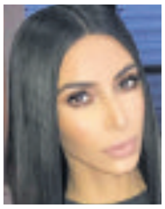
"These were shown to the complainant and she identified herself and said these were what she was wearing.

"She remembers being photographed and quite clearly being sexually assaulted."

The Anguilla-born director was behind Dreadtown: The Steel Pulse Story – about Birmingham-based reggae group Steel Pulse.

Snoop Dogg, Red Hot Chilli Peppers drummer Chad Smith, singer Gwen Stefani and Bob Marley's widow Rita were thought to be set to feature in the film, which is narrated by actor Danny Glover.

The trial continues.



Kim in rage at posh mag snub

REALITY star Kim Kardashian was FURIOUS after swanky mag Vanity Fair didn't invite her to their Oscars party.

Kim, 36, and hubby Kanye West, 39, were snubbed by the big Oscar parties and Kim was particularly humiliated when her transgender stepdad, Caitlyn Jenner, bagged TWO top invites.

A source said: "Kim was desperate to get into the Vanity Fair party. She was horrified and embarrassed at being snubbed. Doubly so, as Caitlyn got invited and didn't offer to pull any strings.

"Kim even had her team call up and ask, but got nowhere. So far, Hollywood acceptance has evaded her and it's what she desperately wants. She can't handle being snubbed."

The snub comes as Kim (above) is attempting to return to the limelight after she was robbed at gunpoint by thieves in Paris last October.

Now Hawking slams Jezza as a 'disaster'

PROFESSOR Stephen Hawking has called for Jeremy Corbyn to stand down as Labour leader, claiming he is a "disaster" for the party.

The Labour-backing physicist said he would vote for Mr Corbyn and that he approves of many of his policies – but he believes he should quit "for the sake of the party".

The Cambridge University academic (above) said: "I regard Corbyn as a disaster.

"His heart is in the right place and many of his policies are sound, but he has allowed himself to be portrayed as a left-wing extremist.

"I think he should step down for the sake of the party."

Prof Hawking backed Labour's Cambridge MP Daniel Zeichner at the general election in 2015.

The acclaimed physicist's intervention is the latest sign of unease within Labour ranks after shadow chancellor John McDonnell suggested there was a "soft coup" being mounted against Mr Corbyn.

A MAN has been found dead in the stairwell of a car park.

Police officers were called to Vale Road in Tunbridge Wells, Kent, shortly after 4am on Tuesday after firefighters discovered the man's body "lying on the ground" in the Torrington car park.

The car park was closed as police launched an investigation into the man's death.

The body of 17-year-old Terry Edmonds was found in a suitcase underneath a ramp in the same car park in 2006.

She had been sexually assaulted and strangled by 23-year-old homeless man Philip Bell before being put into the case on April 17.

Her body was discovered 12 days later.

Bell was convicted of murder in 2009 and jailed for 28 years.

GAME OF THRONES SHOCKER

END GAME: Rosie is ready to cover up and take a hike

By BECCA STUBBS becca@sundaysport.co.uk

GAME of Thrones actress Rose Leslie is ready to pack in her acting career and go travelling.

The 30-year-old shot to fame as wildling character Ygritte, stripping off for steamy nude scenes in the fantasy drama.

But the Scottish stunna hinted: "I'd like to travel – stay in hostels and explore through the eyes of a backpacker."

However, Rose might have to wait before she packs her bags as she's currently starring in The Good Fight, a sequel to the popular show The Good Wife.

Steamy

Her boyfriend, and on-screen lover in Game of Thrones, 30-year-old Kit Harrington, is also busy filming Season 7 of the hit series as he revives fan favourite Jon Snow.

They found love while filming intimate scenes together on the HBO award-winning show and their romance is still going strong.

Rose got her kit off for her scenes as Ygritte – and she repeats her steamy nude scenes for legal drama The Good Fight.

And this time her sex scenes are arguably saucier, as she is seen enjoying a passionate shower with her on-screen lesbian lover, played by Helene York, 32.

CATE BLANCHETT: I THINK WITH MY FANNY!

By HAZEL GROVE
news@sundaysport.co.uk

OSCAR-winning actress Cate Blanchett told a shocked TV audience that her moral compass can be found... in her FANNY!

The Lord Of The Rings star was a guest on The Late Show with Stephen Colbert, where she was promoting her debut in a Broadway play, Anton Chekhov's The Present.

Describing the themes of the play, she said: "It's all about as you move forward in life, what's your moral compass. Where does kindness and humanity sit in a really brutal world."

When Colbert asked her where her moral compass lay, she said: "It's in my vagina."

As the audience screamed and applauded, Blanchett (left) pretended to leave the set while an embarrassed Colbert shook her hand.

He got an equally jokey response to his question about why her upcoming film Ocean's Eight featured a smaller number than previous instalments.

She said: "There's only eight women working in Hollywood."

Speaking about this year's Oscars fiasco, which saw La La Land wrongly announced as best picture instead of Moonlight, Blanchett said that she worried it had played into the hands of Donald Trump criticising actors for expressing their opinions.

She said: "The wonderful thing about America is that success is rewarded.

"But now since the inauguration, this notion of the cultural elite has really got going, so anyone who has a voice and success in the cultural industry is suddenly marginalised or considered their voice isn't significant or worth being part of the popular parlance.

"And they kind of handed it to the administration on Sunday night, the bunch of duffers."

Her G-cup assets stole the show as the Ex on the Beach beauty proudly put them on display during her sunshine holiday with close pal Chantelle Connelly, 26.

ABI Titmuss reckons reality stars who SHAG on TV will live to regret it.

The 41-year-old former glamour girl also said she feels sorry for young girls who star in reality shows these days but can relate to their on-screen actions.

Abi (right) shot to fame when her sex tape with TV presenter John Leslie was released and sparked her celebrity status.

Blonde bombshell Abi starred in the original Love Island back in 2005 and found love with ex-footballer Lee Sharpe, 44.

Last year's Love Island attracted complaints after a number of contestants were shown bonking during the series.

Wake up! Ferne's morning treat

EX-TOWIE stunna Ferne McCann treated fans to a special wake-up call when she uploaded this steamy selfie wearing a see-through nightgown.

The 26-year-old went braless for the sexy snap, protecting her nipples with a strategically placed heart emoji.

Her white knickers were clearly visible through the sheer white material and Ferne looked sensational in the sultry image.

beauty is scared of the potential fallout when her two exes meet up on the infamous beach, as she reckons they could dish the dirt on her.

A source said: "Steph is nervous about Jeremy coming face-to-face with Sam.

"The show is all about relationships, so she is bound to come up in conversation.

"She's worried that the two of them could bond and dish the dirt on her if they use her as their mutual ground."

Steph met Irish tattooed model Jeremy when the pair both entered the Celebrity Big Brother house last year.

Despite having her boyfriend Sam on the outside, Steph pursued a romantic relationship with Jeremy and cheated on Sam in front of the nation.

When the new couple left the house, they were on and off for months before their relationship turned sour.

And the pair were soon hurling insults about one another across social media.

Stressed

However, Steph has since given birth to her first child – and after a DNA test proved Jeremy to be the father, they've been pictured looking loved-up once more.

But an appearance on Ex on the Beach could throw their reunion off course, with a source claiming Steph can't face seeing Jeremy with other girls.

The source said: "Steph is stressed about seeing him with other girls.

"They're not an item, but bonding over their baby recently has healed the rift between them.

"Steph worries she might feel a pang of jealousy and it will cause problems."

BLONDE TEACHER'S SEX SELFIES TO 2 TEEN BOYS

SEX ACTS: Teacher summoned student for class romp

Affairs under nose of school colleague hubby

By COLIN HURST news@sundaysport.co.uk

AN ENGLISH teacher who stalked pupils for sex behind her husband's back has been jailed for three years.

Allison Marchese, 39, sent two teenagers winking emojis, saucy texts and half-naked selfies, a court heard.

The mum-of-two cried in the dock as relatives of the boys told of the impact her actions have had on their lives.

Touching

One parent said: "The actions of this woman have caused immeasurable damage to my son."

A 17-year-old student had told cops that Marchese had called him to her classroom, where they kissed. He also said that she then started touching him "downtown."

Marchese, whose husband Robert taught at the same school, locked the door after he had entered.

The lad told police officers that she then closed the blinds and performed a sex act on him.

After the incident he "freaked" out and told Marchese that she should pay him £160 to not tell anyone about what had happened.

But the teacher then threatened him, claiming "her father was an abusive man who had spent time in jail and had contacts in the Mafia."

Marchese had earlier sent him "weird" sexual messages, the court heard.

She had also shared partially nude photos on Instagram, which could be viewed by other students.

She claimed that one of the X-rated selfies she sent to a pupil was meant for her husband and she "did not know how a student would've got it".

Another pupil said Marchese messaged him through Instagram "nonstop" when he was just 14.

Marchese said she "couldn't concentrate during class because he was so good-looking and she could not sleep at night because she was thinking about him."

In January 2015 Marchese was suspended after the allegations surfaced at Daniel Hand High in Madison, Connecticut.

The teacher was at first charged with sexual assault and risk of injury to a minor.

She could have been jailed for up to 20 years if convicted, however she pleaded guilty last November to reduced charges.

Judge Melanie Cradle ordered her to have sex offender treatment and register as a sex offender for 10 years.

She will also serve five years' probation along with the jail sentence after admitting unlawful restraint, harassment and threatening.

Her 42-year-old husband filed for divorce three weeks after the scandal broke.

Moving news 'to blame for Nightly flop'

DAVID Walliams has said he believes The Nightly Show has proved controversial because viewers were upset about the news moving from its 10pm slot.

Walliams (above), who guest-presented the entertainment show last week, said ITV's attempts to replicate late-night programmes popular in the U.S. suffered comparisons to the nightly bulletins.

He told BBC Breakfast that he did not anticipate the controversy it provoked, adding: "I think people felt they were sort of comparing it to the news than to other entertainment shows."

The news was moved to 10.30pm to make a space in the schedule for The Nightly Show's eight-week run and Walliams said: "I think the problem was ITV news was not getting many viewers for ITV so they wanted to try something different and because they moved the news people were sort of angry about that."

The programme struggled in the ratings last week, debuting with just under three million viewers and losing more than half on its second outing.

"I was just talking to my friend before about how in the Instagram era it's so easy to edit your life so that it looks perfect.

"But I bleach my top lip and tweeze my eyebrows and you'd never get to see that, even though it's a part of my routine.

"It's important to me not to edit that out. I've been bleaching my top lip since I was nine. I don't do it very often, but I do it."

Harry Potter babe Emma also hinted at having a hairy fanny, as she uses a special conditioner to keep it tamed.

Aussies not so big down under

AUSSIE blokes are the most likely to lie about how big they are DOWN UNDER!

A survey has revealed the countries where men exaggerate the most about the size of their penis as well as those where they're modest.

Researchers at dating website SaucyDates.com asked men to estimate the length of their erect penis, then compared the average to the answer given by women about their last sexual partner.

The results show that Australian men are the worst offenders when it comes to exaggeration, claiming an average penis measurement of 7.09ins, while women say it comes in at 5.58ins.

American men are also prone to overselling their goods, but men in India underestimated the size of their manhood.

The Britain's Got Talent host is currently starring in theatre show Stepping Out alongside Angela Griffin, Tracy-Ann Oberman, Tamzin Outhwaite and Nicola Stephenson.

And the 46-year-old presenter wants to attract an audience by ditching her clothes for a nude publicity shoot – in the style of Calendar Girls.

Mum-of-two Amanda said: "I've been joking with my Stepping Out girls that we should do a nude calendar to promote our show, which opened last week, with some strategically placed tap shoes."

The show, written by Richard Harris, originally opened in the 1980's and was turned into a movie in 1991 starring Liza Minnelli.

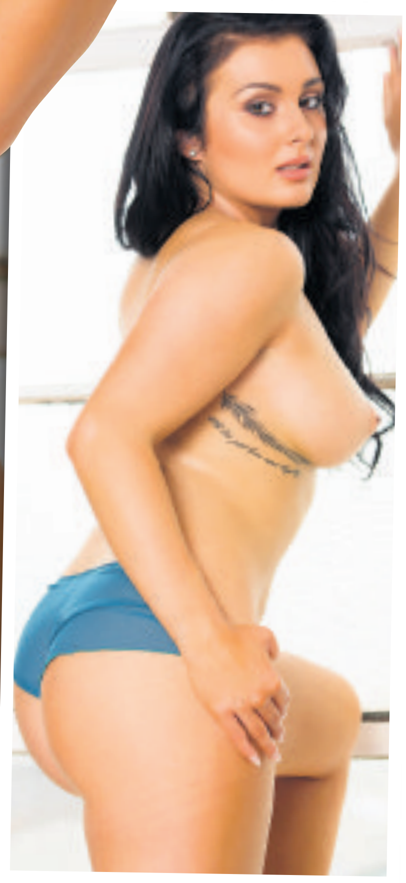
Amanda said she was inspired to reboot the tap-dancing comedy after accidentally stumbling across a repeat of the movie on TV.

She said: "The whole project came about when I caught the film on the movie channel TNT by chance.

"Halfway through it I had an epiphany and wanted to do my own version on stage.

"I tried to get hold of the script – there were only about seven copies of it on Amazon and I bought them all. I sent them out to my friends and that's how it all started.

"I then pitched it to my agents and they asked if they could be the producers."



Dancing On Ice in from cold

DANCING On Ice* could return to television three years after it was dropped by ITV.

The competition saw celebrities learn to ice dance under the supervision of former Olympic champions Jayne Torvill and Christopher Dean.

It was originally hosted by Phillip Schofield and Holly Willoughby, who was later replaced by Christine Lampard, but was axed after nine series.

An ITV source said it is likely the show will return after the idea was "mooted in a couple of meetings", but it is "beyond early days". The last series was shown in 2014 when it was won by Ray Quinn.

LIKE mother, like daughter when it comes to Kim Basinger and Ireland Baldwin as they've both stripped totally STARKERS for the camera.

Model Ireland, 21, shared a new nude snap on Instagram last week after she ditched her clothes for a completely naked shoot on the beach.

Kinky

Her dear old mum Kim, 63, went full frontal plenty of times on the silver screen – in kinky flick 9 ½ Weeks and, pictured above, in 1994's The Getaway.

But blonde scorcher Ireland isn't the only showbiz stunna to have followed in their fit mum's footsteps.

We've pulled together four pages of the sexiest celebrity mum and daughter duos to have bared all, including Susan Sarandon and Eva Amurri, as well as Fifty Shades stunna Dakota Johnson and mum Melanie Griffith.

Kate's ideal date is Sir David, 90

WILDLIFE TV presenter Kate Humble says her celebrity crush is fellow nature expert David Attenborough.

Kate (above), 48, said 90-year-old BBC legend David would be her ideal dinner date because she finds him "sexy".

When asked who her dream dinner date would be, Kate said: "I have had dinner with him already but it would be David Attenborough. He has impeccable manners and there is nothing that I find more sexy.

"The other person I would invite – purely from a decorative point of view – is the actor Gabriel Byrne."

Kate has had stints on Top Gear and Tomorrow's World but is best known for being the face of Springwatch alongside Bill Oddie.

The third series of her gameshow Wild Things starts on Sunday March 12 on Sky 1 at 8pm.

Fact me!

Posh store targets mums with dildos

POSH online retailer Ocado has branched out – and started selling SEX TOYS.

The e-Supermarket left mums stunned after listing kinky vibrators and bullets in their 'new items' section, alongside the usual groceries and household goods.

One posted on Mumsnet: "You can order a vibrator with your groceries and that took me a bit by surprise whilst browsing the new products section."

And one cheeky user suggested that the range of dildos could make suitable replacement items as a result of the recent courgette shortage.

Under the heading of 'sexual wellbeing and family planning', horny shoppers can pick from a range of saucy bedroom aids to be delivered to their front door.

The firm is a favourite among middle class families and is unique as it has no physical stores, shipping products directly from its warehouses instead.

Corrie Rosie's beach strip!

STREET LIFE: Rosie back in Corrie

By BECCA STUBBS

becca@sundaysport.co.uk

HOT totty Helen Flanagan is back on the Corrie cobbles but she squeezed in a saucy sun-soaked break before she made her long-awaited return.

The 26-year-old stunna teased fans when she stripped off while enjoying a beach break, flaunting her assets.

She was once voted the most attractive British celebrity and judging by these pictures it's not hard to see why.

Delight

Helen looks sensational in her yellow bikini, and looks even better out of her brightly coloured two-piece.

Bury-born beauty Helen first appeared in ITV soap Coronation Street in 2000 when she starred as Rosie Webster.

Viewers have since seen the young actress grow into a woman on – and off – the famous street she left in 2012.

However, ITV bosses have now brought Rosie back and she made her anticipated return to the small screen last month – much to fans' delight.

LOOK WHO'S BACK!

Corrie killer Rob's return

OUT AND ABOUT: Marc has been seen on Corrie set

CORONATION Street* killer Rob Donovan is BACK on the cobbles despite being handed a 25-year prison sentence for killing Tina McIntyre.

Rob, played by Marc Baylis, 39, was jailed for the murder of Michelle Keegan's character.

By BECCA STUBBS

becca@sundaysport.co.uk

No-one is certain why he has been pictured back at the ITV studios – he hasn't been seen on the soap since 2015.

Marc was spotted by eagle-eyed fans returning to the Manchester set on Monday wheeling a suitcase and the rumour is of a possible return.

However, should Rob make a shock return to Weatherfield he wouldn't be the only criminal released early. Maria Connor, played by Samia Longchambon, 34, was sentenced to a year in jail on Christmas Eve last year following her sham marriage.

She's been spotted filming scenes recently, after Maria was let out for good behaviour.

Russia 'gay beast' fury

DISNEY'S latest film Beauty and the Beast has been given an ADULTS-ONLY rating in Russia – because of the gay scenes.

The live-action remake, starring Emma Watson, features Disney's first-ever gay character and so breaches the country's law against 'gay propaganda'.

MP Vitaly Milonov referred to the family film's content as "perverted sexual relations" and gave it a 16+ rating.

Rebecca JAMES

By JESS GALLEY
jess@sundaysport.co.uk

RANDY Rebecca James says her FILTHY mind makes her GREAT at talking dirty.

The 28-year-old model, from Brighton, admitted she loves driving her fella wild by telling him exactly what she's going to treat him to later, when they're between the sheets.

Rebecca also said she loves to send naughty pictures to her man during the day – to get him all hot under the collar before a shagging session.

Turn-on

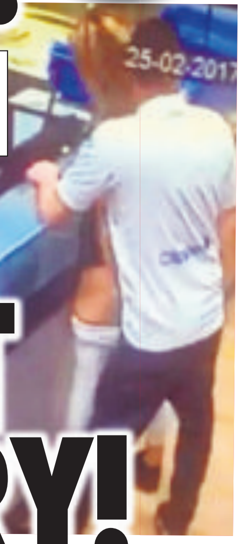
The 30FF glamour babe said: "I have a filthy mind and I love dirty talk! It's a huge turn-on to tell your man exactly what you're going to do to him – and vice versa.

"I like a bit of sexting, too. I love to send my fella naughty pictures of my naked body, to tease him and get him all worked up.

"I'm definitely an exhibitionist and love to show off on camera!"

PETER ANDRE: HAVE SEX IN AN ART GALLERY!

SLICE OF LIFE: Peter frowns on pizza pair's public romp



Dig at Dominos romp pair

By COLIN HURST news@sundaysport.co.uk

POP star Peter Andre reckons if you want to shag in public the best place to do it is in an art gallery!

The Mysterious Girl singer was shocked at news of a Craig Smith and Daniella Hirst doing the dirty deed at a Domino's pizza takeaway.

The 44-year-old , once married to model Katie Price, reckons slipping a girl your length should not be done near food.

Instead, he recommends doing it in the more genteel surroundings of somewhere like the Tate Modern.

He said: "Did you see the story about the couple who were caught on CCTV having sex in a Domino's?

"The pair have since admitted they love having sex in weird places. What can I say? Some people are just randy!

"One thing I can't understand is why they didn't just call for delivery? Then they could have done what they needed to do in the comfort of their own home, and by the time they'd finished, the pizza would have arrived – perfect.

"Or at least they could have chosen a more private location, like an art gallery. But a place that serves food?!

"Out of respect for my lovely wife, I couldn't possibly say whether I've done it al fresco, but let's just say I'd never do it in a Domino's. Their pizzas are damn good though."

His ex Katie takes a less puritanical approach to sex – she was once filmed getting a TOE stuck up her chuff in a sex film.

James McAvoided a driving licence

ACTOR James McAvoy has confessed to driving for YEARS without having a licence.

The 37-year-old X-Men star (above) told Top Gear that he drove cars on movie sets for years and even crashed while Forest Whitaker was in the passenger seat.

James told host Matt LeBlanc, 49, : "I drove a Jag without a driver's licence. I played a car thief in Shameless and no one ever asked me if I had a driver's licence. I didn't get one until six years later.

"I had to drive Forest Whitaker around in a Mercedes SL 200 and I tail-fished that into oncoming traffic.

"I have a clean driving licence now but I got 11 points on my provisional licence."

Angelina: I want to find a Brit brickie!

HOLLYWOOD actress Angelina Jolie wants her next man to be a British BRICKIE as she shuns the limelight.

The 41-year-old is still getting over her shock divorce from Brad Pitt, 53, and she's got her heart set on an average bloke as her next lover.

She's already been married to three famous film stars and linked to most of her co-stars and none have ever worked out.

Now, Angelina is looking for love across the pond and wants a regular bloke to fill the hole in her life.

A source claimed: "Ange is looking for her Prince Charming, but not someone famous this time.

Angelina loves to be in love – she craves romance. If she meets a bricklayer who brings her flowers every day and makes her feel special, she'd date him.

"I don't think she'll go with an American guy, though. She's infatuated with British culture, so I wouldn't be surprised if she starts dating some distinguished British man."

Fact me!

IN 1910, France had more aeroplanes than Germany, Britain, Italy, Russia, Japan and the U.S. combined.

Poisoned arrow kills rare Jumbo

ONE of Africa's last giant tusker elephants has been killed by poachers, who reportedly felled the beast with a poison arrow, conservationists said.

Satao II, who was said to be around 50 years old, was shot while feeding near the edge of Tsavo national park, Kenya, says the Tsavo Trust.

The carcass was found during a routine aerial search before its ivory could be stripped.

Kenyan Wildlife Service rangers arrested two "notorious" poachers, recovering one AK47 along with 12 poison arrows and three bows.

It is estimated there are as few as 25 African giant tuskers left in the wild, with around 10 of them in the 10,000 sq mile Kenyan park.

They are named because of their huge, rare tusks which brush the ground as they move.

HOLLY IN LIVE SPUNK SHOCK

JIZZ MORNING: Busty Holly

BIG-BOOBED TV babe Holly Willoughby shocked the nation yesterday when she started talking about SPUNK live on air.

And her dirty talk left This Morning co-host Phillip Schofield in hysterics.

By COLIN HURST
news@sundaysport.co.uk

But sadly the sexy stunna wasn't talking about a blowjob she'd given the night before, the sexy 36-year-old had simply said a word wrong while reading out a viewer's anecdote about pink mushrooms.

Blonde Holly said: "My son thinks spunk mushrooms..." before covering her mouth and breaking out in peals of laughter after realising her mistake.

Collecting herself, Holly continued: "Hang on…my son thinks pink mushrooms are nipples, I nearly choked eating one when he asked me for 'another nipple'."

Holly and Phil cracked up once again as Phillip quipped: "Thankfully we don't have a plate full of those".

Viewers at home thought the gaffe was hilarious with one fan tweeting: "Holly just said spunk on #This Morning…this is TV gold!".

Another added: "Woke up to hear Holly Willoughby accidentally say spunk".

One more said: "Hearing Holly say spunk gave me a diamond hard erection that has lasted for 90 minutes."

CYCLIST BONKS IN BUSH

A RANDY cyclist was spotted on the job in the bushes at the side of a road – still wearing his helmet.

The amorous couple were seen in woodlands in Putney, south west London, just yards from a main road.

Sian Carpenter, a student at the nearby University of Roehampton, said she saw "pretty much everything" from the main road bordering Putney Commondale.

The 21-year-old added: "I was on a bus going past Commondale and I saw a cyclist only slightly behind the trees, in the full get up – even his helmet. It was so funny."

She didn't see who he was doing it with.

SHE'S BRITAIN'S ONLY TOPLESS COLUMNIST

HOW on earth is Brooklyn Beckham 18?! I can still remember the day he was born, as if it was yesterday.

I thought the photos his mum and dad shared of him growing up were so sweet, but it does make me feel so old when I see all these kids growing up so fast – time is just flying!

I don't think it will be long before we start hearing some rumours about him or see him dragged into a scandal in the papers though as everyone knows who he is!

I mean, he has already been linked to former Pussycat Doll Ashley Roberts, who is way older than he is, and if the rumours are true then it seems like she was desperate to be introduced to Brooklyn (right) because she knows how much publicity his name brings.

I can't imagine Victoria would have been too happy with that story though, ha ha – and I doubt Ashley will be invited around to Beckingham Palace for tea any time soon!

End of Haye's days!

WELL, I went from hero to zero in a matter of minutes on Saturday night as I was supposed to be in the second row at the David Haye – Tony Bellew fight, but I didn't end up seeing any of it!

I totally forgot that I'd made plans for my friends to come down and stay, so I had to sell my tickets at the last minute.

Strength

I was absolutely gutted as I'd been looking forward to it for months – I'd even had my hair braided (below, right) in support of David but I couldn't let my friends down.

We went out for some dinner at a lovely Caribbean restaurant called Turtle Bay and then went home to watch the fight on Sky Box Office, but we had an absolute nightmare as the feed wouldn't work – the screen was just completely black and all we had was sound. It was a joke!

I've seen clips of it since and I think, even though Bellew won, the true victor was David as he was fighting on 50 per cent and showed real strength to carry on despite his injury.

You can see the moment when his Achilles snaps and I think to keep fighting through that just shows how much of a true champ and a warrior he is.

Now though, I think it's time for him to hang up his gloves. I can't see anyone wanting to fight him after this and he wouldn't stand a chance against the likes of Anthony Joshua.

Haye has had a good run, but now I think he should give back to the country and put his time and effort into the sport that has made him who he is today.

Cracking boobs, Nicki!

BLOODY hell, Nicki MInaj has got a cracking pair of boobs hasn't she! I thought those pictures of her with her boob out at fashion show were brilliant – good on her for being so body confident.

I don't think it's something that I would ever do, though. I know I have made a living from glamour modelling but it has always been instilled in me that you shouldn't go around with your boobs hanging out, and I still think like that when I go out now.

Back in the day, when I was going out on the town all the time, I would have been labelled a slag if I'd gone out dressed like Nicki did. But I think it just goes to show that we're all becoming more liberal and comfortable with our bodies and that the prudish views of the older generation in this country are dying out.

Like I said you won't catch me popping to the shops with one tit out any time soon, but good on Nicki for doing it!

I WILL be back on Studio 66 tomorrow night, from 10pm on Sky channel 912 and Freeview channel 185 from midnight.

But tomorrow is also a really personal day for me as it would have been my mum's 64th birthday, so I need as many of you as possible to call in and help to keep my mind occupied!

It has been almost three years since I lost my mum to cancer but it just doesn't get any easier. I am going to celebrate her birthday by meeting up with all of my lovely aunties for lunch and we're going to spend the day talking about my mum and remembering all of the good times. So I'd just like to say, Happy Birthday for tomorrow mum!

MAN TRIES TO ROB CHIPPY WITH A BANANA!

THIS IS A SLIP-UP! Suspect

A USELESS thief tried to rob a fish and chip shop while wielding a BANANA disguised as a gun.

By BECCA STUBBS
becca@sundaysport.co.uk

Police are searching for the crap crook who burst into the takeaway in Atherton, Gtr Manchester.

CCTV shows the thief pointing his 'gun' at shop staff and screaming: "Open that fking till now!"

But his makeshift weapon appears to be nothing more than a banana wrapped up in a plastic bag.

His cover was blown when a cashier noticed the bendy shape of the fruit inside the bag and he was forced out of the chippy without any cash.

Terrifying

The attempted stick-up happened at 8.45pm on February 11.

Police have this week released CCTV in a bid to catch the robber.

After failing to rob the shop with his makeshift gun, cops are now on the hunt for the crook.

Greater Manchester Police said the suspect is white, around 6ft tall and of a slim build and was seen wearing a blue jumper with black material covering most of his face.

A police spokesman said: "We are appealing for information about this terrifying incident, which has put these people's safety in danger – all for petty cash from a till.

"If anyone recognises the man in the CCTV footage or has any other information that may help us then I urge you to get in touch."

...and another has sex with a FENCE!

A BLOKE was caught SHAGGING his neighbour's FENCE when she filmed the bizarre act on her mobile phone.

Eleodoro Estala, 32, was arrested for indecent exposure after he was seen having sex with his female neighbour's property.

The woman called cops after she spotted Estala weeing on her side of the fence that separates their two homes, and filmed him when he saw her and began stripping off before putting his mouth on the fence and TONGUING it, then finally shagging it.

Estala appeared to be drunk when he was arrested in North Austin, Texas. He was later bailed from the Travis County Jail.

EMMERDALE IN GAY BACKLASH

Viewers vent anger at 'too strong' jail scenes

SCENES this week in Emmerdale which saw a gay character abused and taunted over the suicide of his father has sparked a storm of complaints.

Telly watchdog Ofcom has received 180 complaints from upset viewers about Monday night's instalment of the ITV soap.

Character Aaron Dingle, played by Danny Miller, has been suffering abuse in prison since the other inmates found out he is gay. He has also been victimised as the son of convicted paedophile Gordon Livesy, who hanged himself in the jail in 2016.

Aaron, who was abused by his father as a child, was dragged to an empty cell by an angry mob of prisoners during the episode and beaten by ringleader Jason, who spat homophobic insults at him.

He then said: "Your pansy old man died in here. This is where he laid at night thinking about all the things you and him got up to.

"Did you cry for him to stop, or did you secretly want him to carry on?"

By KATIE ARCHER news@sundaysport.co.uk

As he held Aaron to the bed, he said: "Then he climbed up on his bed, exactly where you're kneeling now.

"I reckon the last thought that went through his head, your dad, was that it was worth it because he ruined you."

An Ofcom spokesperson said: "We will assess these complaints before deciding whether to investigate, or not."

ITV responded: "The threat of violence towards Aaron Dingle was signposted both before and during last night's episode.

"The actual violence shown towards Aaron was carefully judged and suitably limited, given the scheduling of the programme."

Viewers of the Yorkshire Dales-set soap were shocked by the scene.

@elizabethmphill tweeted: "@emmerdale found last night's just TOO sickening too watch had to switch off."

Lou wants EastEnders comeback

SOAP babe Louise Lytton wants to make a return to EastEnders.

The 28-year-old shot to fame when she joined the BBC drama in 2005 as Ruby Allen but left after 18 months.

Louisa (above) is currently starring as Rizzo in Grease, The Musical but reckons she's more than ready to return to Albert Square.

She said: "I loved my time there and I'd love to go back. I'd never say never. Right now I've got Grease to concentrate on.

"This is taking up a year of my life and who know what it will lead to? If they asked me back, I'd always look at the opportunity."

After a 10-year stint away from the soap, Louisa could return as show bosses haven't killed off her character.

Lee Ryan was recently announced as the newest addition to EastEnders and has already said he wants Louisa to return as his character's girlfriend.

Brunette beauty Louisa revealed: "Lee texted me saying I'm in talks with EastEnders ...and yeah, he did mention about bringing my character back as his girlfriend."

Couple's telly row boils over

A WIFE threw a pot of boiling hot chicken soup over her husband after a row about what to watch on the telly.

Sandra Guardiola, 57, wanted to watch her soap operas while he wanted to see a show about cars.

She stormed out of the bedroom and came back with the pan of soup which she chucked over Jorge, scalding his legs and groin.

He ran screaming from their house in Florida and called the police, but while he was on the phone Sandra swung a hammer into the left side of his head, leaving a golf-ball sized bump.

Sandra was hauled into the Palm Beach County Jail on aggravated battery charges.

She is being held in the jail early Friday on an £8,000 bond.

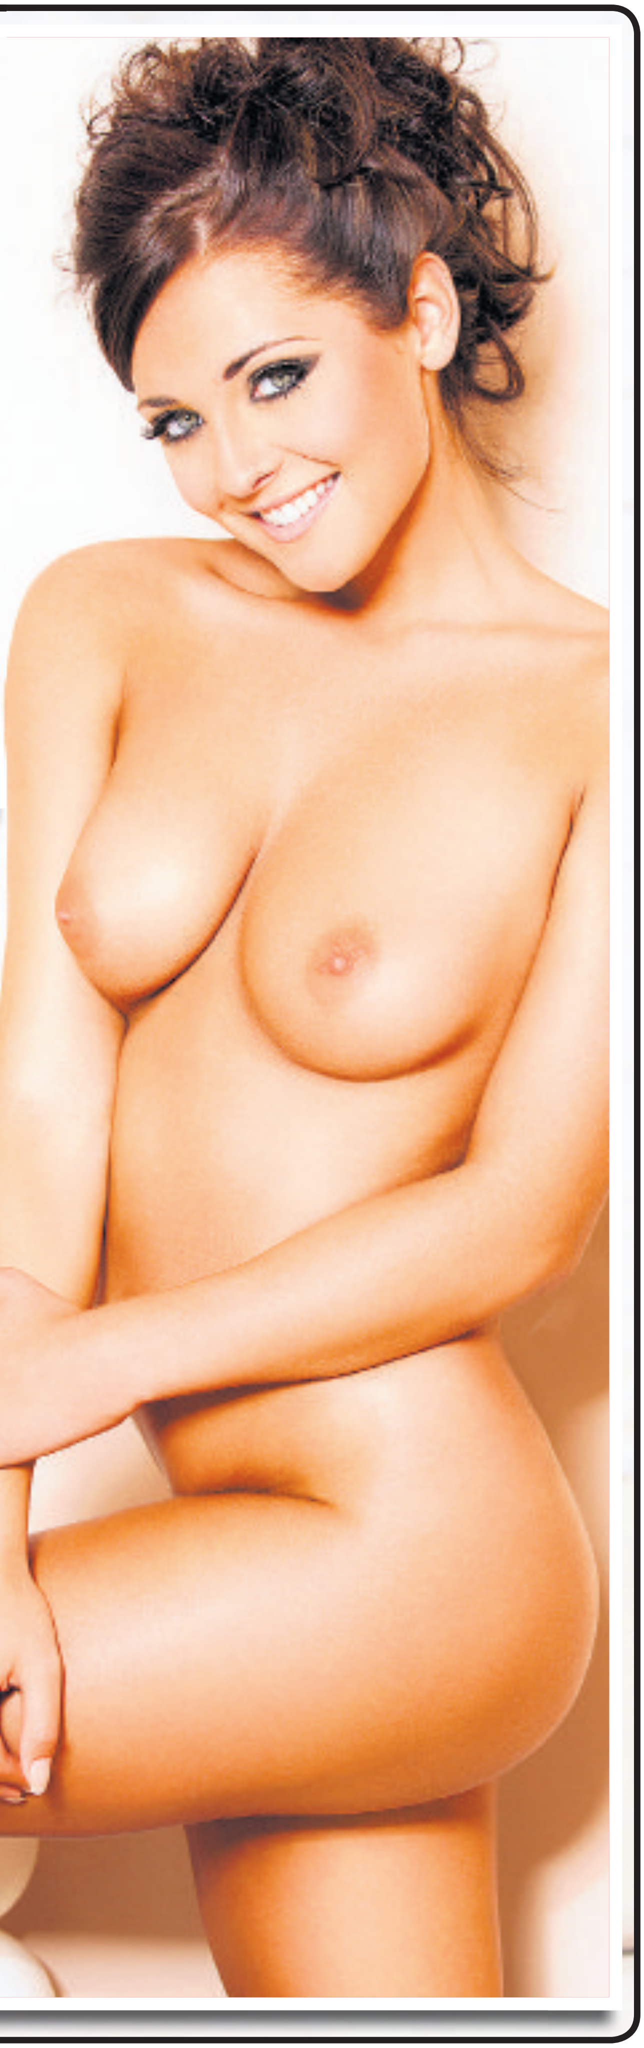
Daisy
WATTS



By BECCA STUBBS
becca@sundaysport.co.uk

DELICIOUS Daisy Watts might not wear sexy undies when she goes on a night out.

But she's so good in bed that blokes have never complained.

The 25-year-old stunna, from north London, said she's always on the prowl for hunky men at her local nightclub.

Even though the busty 32DD babe doesn't wear sexy underwear on nights out, she still thinks they leave satisfied.

Stockings

She said: "I love wearing suspender belts and matching bra and knickers.

"And when I'm in a steady relationship, I really love wearing stockings, too.

"But you can't wear any of that as a single girl, because it clashes with your outfits.

"If you wear a tight dress to a club you can't have saucy lingerie on – it shows though.

"I've never been wearing good underwear when I've pulled a guy.

"But I've never EVER had a complaint either!"

A bonk a day feels as good as £50K pay!

Sabrina Murphy says...

'WHO doesn't feel good after sex? Although whether I'd feel as good as I did if I got handed £50K I'm not so sure – can I not have regular sex AND the money?!'

By BECCA STUBBS

becca@sundaysport.co.uk

DON'T worry about getting that pay rise because having regular bonks will give you the same boost.

In fact, a recent study claims that having a romp once a day gives people the same feeling as earning a £50,000 salary.

It's often been said that frequent shagging session are the key to happiness and experts reckon the happy spurt just after a rendezvous is the same as a massive pay rise.

Satisfaction

Psychologists from Switzerland and Canada have done a series of studies for the respected Personality and Social Psychology Bulletin and have looked at the satisfaction a shag can give someone.

Despite the obvious orgasm, they reckon that shagging on a daily basis leads to long-term happiness and life satisfaction.

Anik Debrot and her collegues conducted a survey into how much sex couples had and how they rated their lives.

More than 300 people were studied and results showed that following a romp, people claimed to be satisfied for 24 hours afterwards.

Once 24 hours had passed, people reported feeling a lot less satisfied, and the previous post-coital bliss they'd had was gone.

Debrot said: "When engaging in sex, people not only seek an intimate connection, but indeed experience more affection, both when having sex and in the next several hours.

Quickie

"Hence sex seems not only beneficial because of its physiological or hedonic effects, but because it promotes a stronger and more positive connection with the partner."

The study encouraged couples who sometimes make excuses for a bedtime quickie to instead engage in a shagging session.

They added that making the effort once a week between the sheets could have benefits for the next day and bring you closer to your lover.

Having a quick bonk can also make you feel the same as you would if your boss handed you £50,000 in your yearly pay packet.

Results also showed that it doesn't matter when couples squeeze in their steamy sex, the positive feelings would still last for the next day.

We asked three Sport stunnas whether they feel happier after sex and what they thought of the survey results…

Alice Spencer says…

'WHEN I've had a good seeing-to I always have a little spring in my step the day after, knowing what I got up to the night before keeps me wet all day too!'

Kelly Gilhooly says…

'GOOD sex can leave you feeling good for days afterwards, especially if a guy's made me cum as well. But if it's bad, I can't forget about it quick enough.'

MIDWEEK Sport SEX FORUM

Joanna Jenson
Age 20, 34DD-24-36 from Reading

Come on, fellas – give her a climax as well!

By JESS GALLEY
jess@sundaysport.co.uk

NEW research has revealed that men COME more than women in the bedroom.

Findings from a recent survey showed that when it comes to satisfaction between the sheets, men are left with a smile on their face much more often than their other halves.

A whopping 95 per cent of fellas said they orgasm every time they get frisky, which the boffins reckon shows that women are more likely to make sure their partners were left contented.

Lesbian

But just over 60 per cent of straight women said they reached climax every time they bonked – though the numbers were much higher for lesbian couples.

The research was carried out by Chapman University, in California, and quizzed more than 52,000 people in monogamous relationships.

A spokesmen said: "The fact that lesbian women orgasmed more than heterosexual women indicates that many heterosexual women could experience higher rates of orgasm.

"Part of this difference in perception could be due to women faking orgasms, which research has suggested women will do for a variety of reasons, including out of love for their partner, to protect their partner's self-esteem, intoxication or to bring the sexual encounter to an end."

Willing

We wanted to know what our Sport babes thought of the research, so we asked Reading stunna Joanna Jenson how often she comes when she has sex.

The 20-year-old scorcher told us that she always gets her way between the sheets, and doesn't see why a man should have all the fun if he isn't willing to return the favour.

The 34DD beauty said: "I can't say I'm surprised by the findings that men have more orgasms than women, but there's no way I'd ever let that happen in my own relationship.

"Whenever I jump into bed with my man I expect him to leave me fully satisfied – and likewise he expects the same from me.

"I mean, who wouldn't want to know that their other half was getting the most enjoyment out of sex?!"

MY SEX FANTASY ...WITH EVA PARCKER

'After a few drinks I let go completely!'

By JESS GALLEY jess@sundaysport.co.uk

STUNNA Eva Parcker wants to get STEAMY in a HOT TUB.

The 34C babe says the powerful bubbles hitting her bits never fails to make her horny!

Glamour model Eva, 26, is saving up to buy a Jacuzzi and says she'll need a man to fulfil her filthy fantasy...the lucky fella!

The London lass said: "There's something about being near naked, enjoying a glass of bubbly and the water jets hitting my lady bits that really turns me on!

Nipples

"It really gets my nipples hard, and the rush of the water against my inner thighs and bum just makes me horny as hell.

"I've given quite a lot of thought to the positions you could try and there are loads. Girl on top is an obvious one, reverse cowgirl too.

"And the girl leaning back and lifting her legs up would work too. I'm getting turned on just talking about it!

"Unfortunately I've only been with girl mates in hot tubs and never had a tasty bloke about when I've needed one!

"Jacuzzis being outdoors adds to the risk factor of getting caught. Honestly, if I had one in my garden, or I met a fit bloke at a party where there was a hot tub, I can't promise I wouldn't be giving the neighbours an eyeful.

Fetish

"Who knows, if it was at a party it could always lead to some group action!

"I don't have many inhibitions and after a few drinks I completely let go.

"I've got carried away in a swimming pool on holiday several times and when skinny dipping abroad in the sea.

"The warm water and good mood you're in when away has definitely made me get carried away!

"It's starting to sound like I have a water fetish! I love bathtub sex too – though you need a decent size bath.

"Standing up in the shower is very sensual too – ooh, I think I'm coming..."

THE WORLD FAMOUS AGONY Page

Dear Sam,

I'M a 25-year-old legal secretary and I got married to a wonderful man last year.

I have no problems with my marriage or our sex life – but I do have a big problem over something that happened on my hen night.

I went out with a bunch of mates and had a few drinks and at the end of an enjoyable evening I shared a taxi with a female pal.

When we reached my flat she insisted on coming in, to use the toilet. But as soon as she got through the door she grabbed my boobs and kissed me full on the mouth – with tongues and everything.

I'd never been with a woman before and I was surprised at how good it felt. Before I realised what was happening she had pulled up my mini-skirt and eased three fingers into my already wet pussy.

Afterwards I felt a bit ashamed and guilty and now I fear I might be a lesbian. What do you think?

PG, Lancashire

Sam says…

STOP worrying. It was a complete one-off so just enjoy the memory.

Dear Sam,

I'VE been masturbating on a regular basis since I was a teenager and I'm now 22.

Every time I see a photo of a topless model – especially all the gorgeous Sport babes – or a nice girl in a nightclub I get a massive boner and have to nip off for a wank.

I've often been reported to the bouncers by other blokes in the bogs but I just can't help myself.

Sometimes I find that I'm bashing one out four or five times a day and I think I'm addicted!

But the thing is, I'm a virgin and have never shagged a woman in my life.

I try to imagine what it would be like – to stick my cock inside a nice wet fanny – when I'm having a tug.

Should I seek professional help or will I just eventually grow out of this habit?

FR, Essex

Sam says…

IT won't do you any harm but try to get a young lady to give you a hand.

Elvis lover is King of the bedroom!

Dear Sam,

I'VE just spilt up with my boyfriend of five years and I'm devastated.

He's a handsome Elvis Presley impersonator who looks like the King did in his heyday – not the bloated bloke who ate burgers.

We met when he was doing a gig in my local and moved in with me pretty soon after our first night of unbridled passion.

And the sex just got better as the months went by.

I used to accompany him to all his gigs then we'd have amazing marathon shagging sessions once we got home.

Then two years ago I got pregnant and I had a beautiful girl.

So I could no longer go with him to gigs but I was happy to stay at home.

But one Saturday night I got a call from him saying he'd met someone else and that he wouldn't be coming back home!

That was three weeks ago and I'm sat at home heartbroken.

What should I do?

MC, Bolton

Sam says…

I KNOW you're all shook up but it will get easier.

AGONY IS BROUGHT TO YOU IN ASSOCIATION

WELCOME to the World famous Sport Agony page! No other newspaper's agony aunts can offer the level of advice – or experience – than our own Agony Angels! This week SAM TYE has been reading through your letters. And here's her advice for you…

Subject:

Hubby wants me to watch while he beds another babe

Dear Sam,

I'VE been married to my hubby for 10 years and I always thought we had a very good sex life.

We're both in our late 30s and I'm a shapely 34DD with long blonde hair.

He's got a beer gut and insists on spiking up his short hair with lots of gel even though I've told him it makes him look daft – but I love him nonetheless.

I even give him access to my back door, if you catch my drift.

But at the end of last year, at a New Year's Eve party in town, he hit me with a big bombshell and told me he wanted to fk another woman as I watched them!

I was shocked, but could see he'd been giving it a lot of thought, so I agreed.

Horny

As the night wore on and we got a bit tipsy after a couple of glasses of wine, we discussed various women at the party who he'd like to bonk.

There was a little brunette of about 30 in a short skirt and glasses and he said she was ideal.

She didn't look much to me, so I was happy to go and chat her up for him.

And she didn't need much persuading as she said she was horny as hell.

Back at our house she started to snog my hubby and despite myself I started to feel quite turned on.

When she took his manhood in her mouth I was getting decidedly moist.

Then she pushed him on the bed and clambered on top of him, forcing down her pussy on his prick.

She started to moan and buck wildly and I was so excited that I started to masturbate.

He pulled out of her fanny and wanked himself off over her tits while looking at me rubbing my clit.

As he spunked his load on her boobs I screamed out an orgasm.

I badly wanted to feel his cock in me but the other woman got there first.

By the time he'd banged her for the fifth time I was getting a bit bored.

I've tried to discuss it with him but he thinks the evening was a great success and has arranged for her to come round again soon.

I fear I may be losing my husband. What should I do?

DF, Dorset

Sam says…

TELL him that you want to join in this time.

Dear Sam,

MY girlfriend of five years had a bad experience with blowjobs – she was sucking off this guy when he rammed his cock deep into her throat.

He got stuck there and she nearly suffocated on his member.

Since then, she's not been willing to have a cock anywhere near her mouth for fear of it happening again.

When we got together, she said she'd give my Johnson a good sucking as a five-year anniversary present.

Well, it's been the longest five years of my life, but it's been worth the wait.

Although she was nervous at first, as soon as she got going, she had a hunger for cock and I came in her mouth!

HI, Somerset

Sam says…

SWEET suck-cess!

Hairs to wild romp with former flame

Dear Sam,

WHEN I was changing trains on a recent journey, I had a good hour to kill so I wandered into a pub near the station.

I was gobsmacked to see an old girlfriend from my home town pulling pints behind the bar.

We'd only dated a couple of times before we went off to uni and she didn't recognise me at first because I'd let my hair grow really long and was sporting a beard.

But when I ordered my drink and called her by her name she looked at me long and hard and the penny finally dropped.

She was really pleased to see me and we chatted for ages about old times.

Her shift was due to end and I was happy to miss my train when she invited me back to her place.

She took me to her car and as we drove along she said she really liked my new long hair style.

So after a bit of flirting she pulled up in a dark side street.

We were soon snogging and then she told me to get in the back of the car where she pulled her pants off.

Next thing, I'm munching on her juicy fanny and she unbuttoned my trousers and eased my stiff prick out – it was really straining to get at her!

I knelt up towards her face and she started to give me a gobble – using one hand to cup and massage my balls at the same time as I groped and explored her firm boobs.

We were getting really hot and it took only a moment for me to turn her round and steer myself into her lovehole and start pounding away at her.

I've just had all my long hair shaved off, for a job interview and I'm afraid she won't find me so attractive.

EC, South Yorks

Sam says…

I can't see why she won't mind you being a shaven raver!

AGONY QUICKIES

Dear Sam,

I WAS at my mate's house the other day and he made a cup of soup for his new girlfriend.

He called me in to the kitchen and said, "Watch this," as he stirred the lukewarm soup with his stiff cock!

Then he winked at me as his girl sipped at it and then gobbled it down all the way.

I don't think this girl deserves this and I reckon my pal's a bit of a prick.

Should I tell her?

EW, Bucks

Sam says…

NO – just ignore him.

Dear Sam,

MY dad has started dating a much younger woman who I know has shagged most of the regulars in my local.

It will only end in tears when he catches her with another bloke's cock in her gob.

What should I do?

JW, Oldham

Sam says…

LET your dad have his fun.

GENTLEME

SPEARMINT RHINO BABE OF THE WEEK

Terri LOU

By JESS GALLEY jess@sundaysport.co.uk

BUSTY model Terri Lou is looking for a naughty guy to bend her over in the bedroom.

The 28-year-old, from Northampton, spoke to us EXCLUSIVELY about her sex life and revealed that her favourite position is doggy-style.

Bared

Terri stripped off and bared her fine 30GG norks for this saucy photoshoot in honour of being named Spearmint Rhino Girl of the Week.

She also chatted to us about what she looks for in a potential fella – and what she likes to get up to between the sheets.

Terri said: “My perfect guy would be a real gentleman – but behind closed doors he would need to have a naughty streak, if you know what I mean.

“Like any other girl, I like to be wined and dined, so my perfect date would be to go for a meal at a nice restaurant. My absolute favourite food is Sushi.

“Then we would move on to a nice bar and spend hours drinking cocktails and getting to know each other.

“If he was lucky enough to eventually make it to the bedroom, then my favourite position is doggy-style!”

Spearmint Rhino has a number of gentleman’s clubs around the world which boast the most beautiful dancers.

But if you can’t make it to one of those venues, you can find Spearmint Rhino girls at boxing and Mixed Martial Arts (MMA) fights around the country, or at the British Superbike Rounds.

Gold Cup glory is right on Cue for Tizzard

TRAINER HAS STRONG HAND EVEN WITHOUT THISTLECRACK

GOING FOR GOLD: Cue Card is the big-race favourite

TRAINER Colin Tizzard is still looking forward to a big Cheltenham — even if his stable star is injured.

By MIKE FRANCIS

Most handlers would be under a cloud to lose a horse like Thistlecrack, who was hot favourite for the Gold Cup.

But Tizzard still has a strong hand to play — with old favourite Cue Card and Native River both at the head of the betting. He said: "I was devastated at the time about Thistlecrack but now I am looking on the positive side.

"He won a King George this season and we haven't broken him. I am sure he will be back next season.

"We've had disappointments before in the lead up to big races and I'm sure for everyone who has any horse and they have a setback, it is galling, and it is no different to me.

"Especially the bigger names, they are the hardest for a while.

"We've got the first and second-favourite in the Gold Cup and you have got to make yourself enjoy it.

"Anyone who has been to the Gold Cup meeting and seen the Gold Cup horses would be chuffed to have the two horses and I've got to be.

"For me it is the biggest race of the season. It is the ultimate test of any horse. We spend a lot of time and money trying to buy horses to run in the Gold Cup, as that's what we are aiming for."

There wouldn't be a dry eye in the house if Cue Card managed to win the big one.

He was going well before falling in last year's Gold Cup and is looking for his 10th Grade 1 success.

Tizzard added: "Of course we would love to see Cue Card win. He started off as a Champion Bumper winner, now he is 11 years old and still running in Grade One races.

"He has done nearly everything bar win a Gold Cup. I don't know what I would think if he won.

"We thought quietly that perhaps his chance had gone, but it is definitely not now.

"He has got an equally good chance this year as he did last year and if he wins it would be fantastic."

HOPEFUL: Henderson

Arkle in mind for Hendo's star Altior

NICKY Henderson says he cannot wait for the Festival — and is hoping for a big win from star chaser Altior.

He won the Supreme Novices' Hurdle last year — the first race of the meeting.

He has the Arkle Trophy as his target this time and Henderson is confident of a big run.

The Seven Barrows trainer said: "It's an extraordinary game. All you need, no matter how many you have got running, is one success at the Festival.

"If you can have one on the first day, as we did with Altior in the first race last year, then you have got the show on the road and from then on you can add to it — the world ends if you do not get one.

"We are a long way from another Sprinter Sacre, but Altior is creeping up the right road, only because of the Game Spirit in that he took the same route Sprinter Sacre did.

"Now he has got to come out and do the same in the Arkle.

"There are bound to be comparisons. There are now.

"You wouldn't believe that you have to put away one that was as great as that and to replace it with another serious two-miler, and this horse is two miles and two miles only.

Favourite

"I was very confident about Altior at this time last year. I think he has transferred his ability to chasing and not made many mistakes.

"He has to do it this year. He wasn't even favourite last year."

Henderson has a strong hand in the Champion Hurdle with Buveur D'Air, Brain Power and last year's second My Tent Or Yours.

He added: "You would have to say it is a very open. It's a good year to have three in there with a chance, because it is wide open.

"Usually we have either got something like a See You Then or a Binocular — stand-out horses.

"Altior was always going for the Arkle, so Buveur D'Air would have found it difficult to beat him in that race. It seemed an obvious thing to aim him at this.

"He goes on soft ground and is in good form. He ran third in the Supreme Novices' Hurdle last year and most of our very good horses have been placed in the Supreme."

THE WINNING POST

Have a Sly few quid on

By BEN MORGAN

PAM Sly is having a fine season to date and can continue that good form at Catterick today.

She looks to have a good chance in the 3.20 with ALL MY LOVE who was impressive last time out at Market Rasen.

The mare put her debut run well behind her as she dispatched of some good rivals in taking fashion.

Harry Fry fancied his horse that day but she was no match for the selection as she showed a devastating turn of foot to leave her rivals in her wake.

Liking

A repeat of that performance will see her go in again given that she gets a healthy allowance off her main rival.

Mrs Sly has another interesting runner on the card, BONNET'S VINO, who shows an obvious liking for both here at Catterick and also Fakenham.

Her record at the latter is pretty impressive and is far stronger than her form here but she has won over course and distance before and given that she seems in good form, she ought to run well again today.

She has a valuable claimer on board who takes off a handy 7lb, which may make all the difference today. Nice chance.

MISTER GREZ featured as a tip last week at Ffos Las but was unfortunately a non runner that day but he should be able to repay the faith I have shown in him today at Fontwell.

Jockey Bridget Andrews gets on very well with the horse which is always a good sign.

And as he is now 8lb lower than his last winning mark, I should say he could well be nicely handicapped.

He bounced back to form last time and only found next time out winner, Ballinvarrig, too good for him.

If he can reproduce that form, he should win this without too many problems.

FOXY FOREVER has dropped to what looks like a useful mark and could cash in the 4.30 at Lingfield.

Form

He has been given a short break after some fine performances in the month of January and he has some very tasty form in the book.

A convincing winner of the 2015 Rockingham handicap at the Curragh that has not quite gone on from there but there has been signs in his past few runs that recapturing that level of form isn't beyond his capabilities.

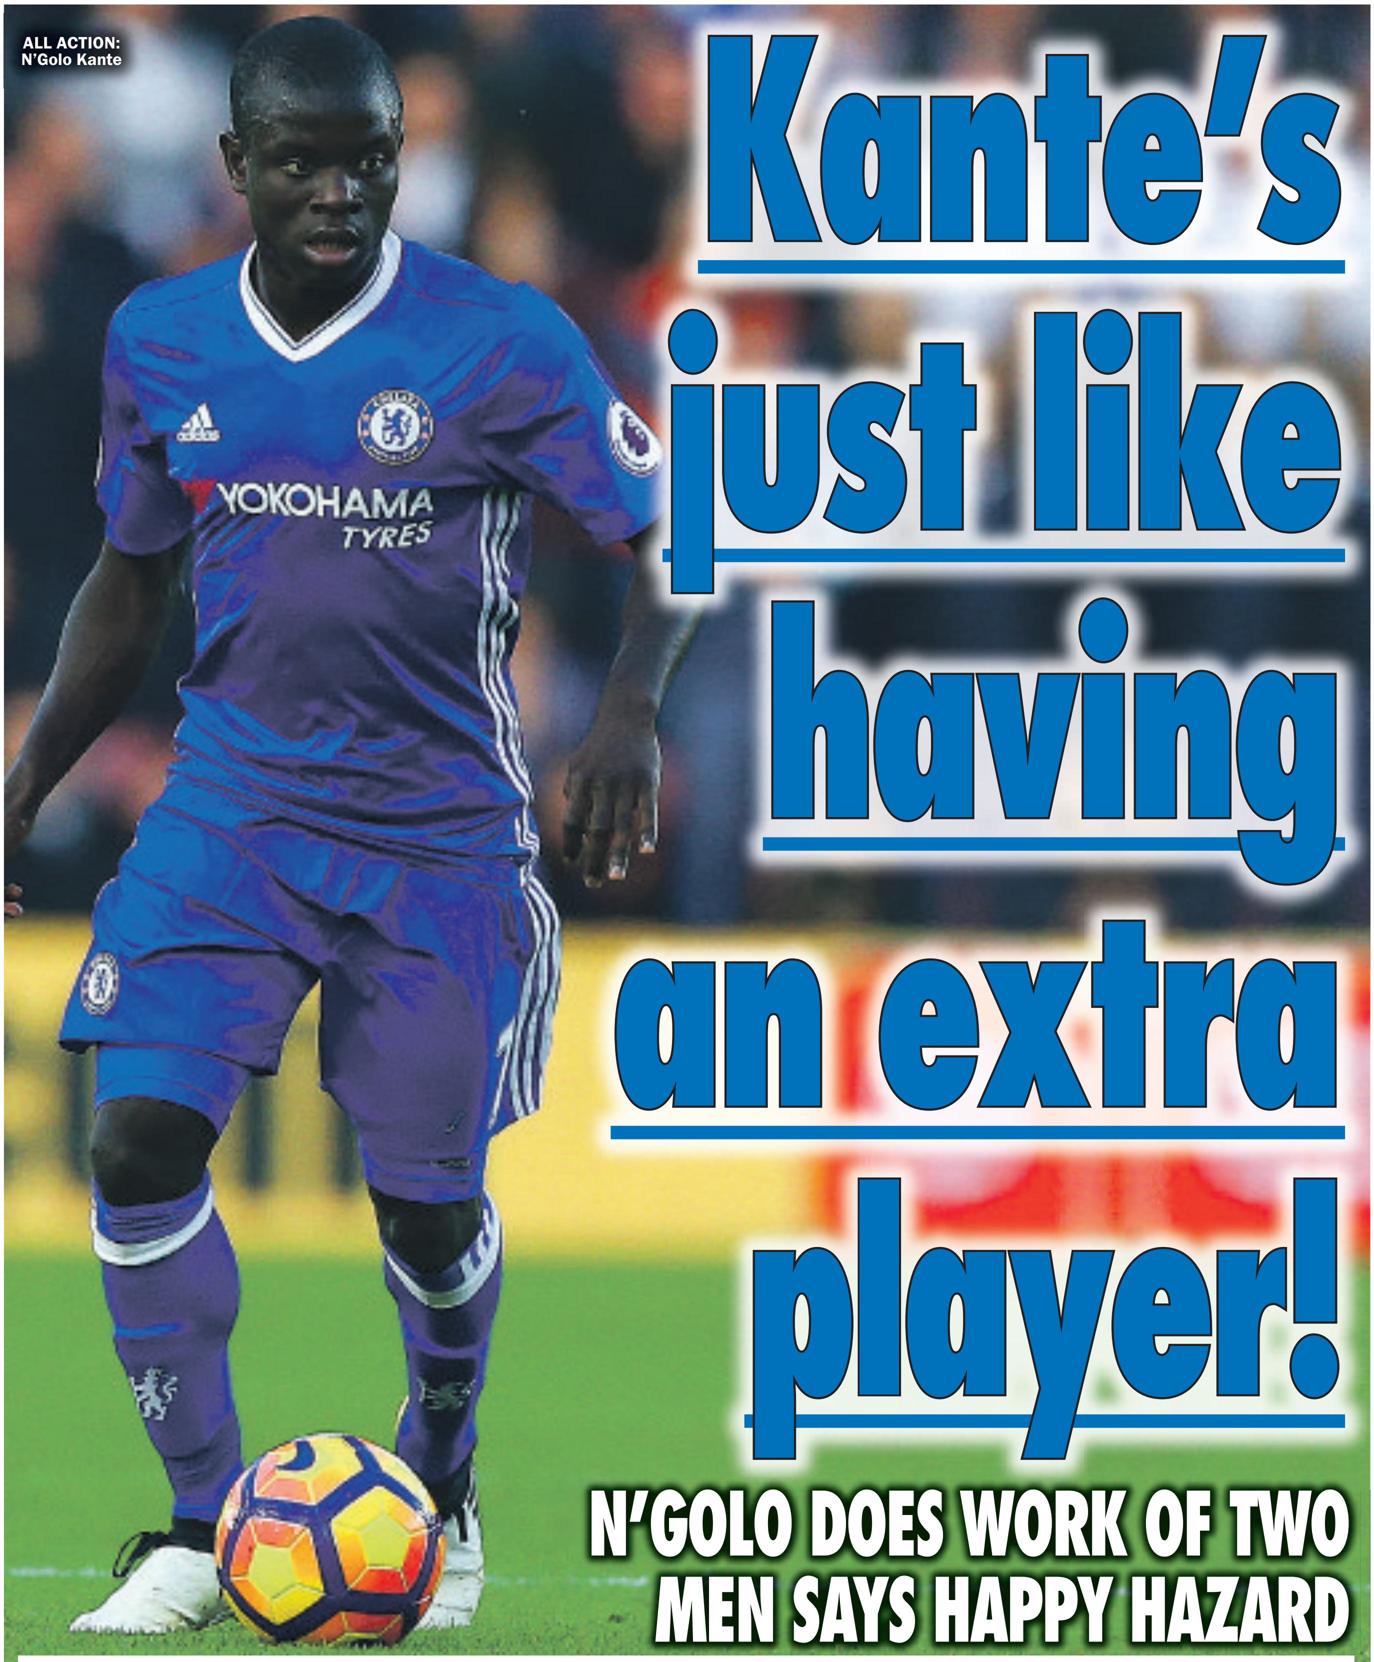
ALL THE LATEST ON THE PREMIER LEAGUE



ALL ACTION: N'Golo Kante

Kante's just like having an extra player!

N'GOLO DOES WORK OF TWO MEN SAYS HAPPY HAZARD

By ANDY MILLOM

EDEN Hazard believes Chelsea have 12 men in their team — thanks to N'Golo Kante.

The little midfielder does the work of two players.

And Hazard says it's like having TWINS in the team.

Kante's amazing workrate was one of the main factors that won Leicester the title last season.

Now he's working his magic for Chelsea, who sit 10 points clear at the Premier League summit. Hazard thinks the Frenchman should get plenty of credit for how well the Blues' season is going.

He said: "I don't need to speak about N'Golo Kante, everyone knows about him. He's everywhere during our games.

"I think sometimes when I'm on the pitch I see him twice.

"One on the left, one on the right. I think I'm playing with twins!

"He's a fantastic player and helps the team a lot so we are happy to have him in the team."

Boss Antonio Conte is another with plenty of praise for Kante.

He was instrumental in a battling 2-1 win at West Ham on Monday night that surely wraps up the title.

Conte said: "I know Kante made 50 passes and he made five mistakes. He has to improve in this! I'm joking, but I have to find one situation to tell him to improve.

"He's really good. He has great stamina but also good quality.

"We are working to improve the quality. He's playing really well but all my players performed well."

Even Conte admits that it would be a massive shock if Chelsea blow their 10-point lead with just 11 games.

Even if their chasers win all of their matches, can anyone see the Bridge boys losing four times?

The boss said: "Eleven games are a lot.

"Now it's important to handle the pressure in the right way. They show me great will to win the games.

"I'm happy because it was a tough game against West Ham.

"It's not easy to play after your opponents have played. You know that if you drop points you give hope to them."

FORGET IT: Koeman

Hand it over – title race is out of steam

By MARK NAYLOR

PREMIER League bosses are queuing up to say the title race is over.

More and more gaffers think there's ZERO chance of Chelsea blowing their 10-point lead at the top of the table.

With just 11 games left to play for the Blues, it's hard to see them making a mess of it.

Pep Guardiola agrees, saying: "It's a pity that the distance between Chelsea is so big.

"But that's true. We are there behind, of course, Chelsea because they are almost unstoppable.

"I feel we are playing quite well and that's why we are getting results.

"But now, of course, we are in a position when you arrive in March and April, every game if you win, you stay; if you lose, you are out.

"In the Premier League, in the cup, in the Champions League.

"The players know, we know, the club knows, if we are not able to win the next game we will be out."

Slaven Bilic is another who thinks they might as well hand the title trophy to Chelsea now.

Serious

He said: "This is the Premier League and they have enough points if they slip up.

"They are not going to lose. They won't be casual.

"They look very serious and I can see them staying on top because of the quality they have and how solid and concentrated they are.

"And most of all how physically good their shape is.

"They always defend with a minumum five players.

"I'm impressed with them because they are 10 points clear."

Everton boss Ronald Koeman is another who thinks Tottenham — and anyone else — should forget about the title and just concentrate on getting in the top four.

His Toffees were beaten by Spurs at the weekend but he can see a gulf between them and Conte's boys.

The Dutchman said: "I think Tottenham are really strong.

"It's a difficult system to play against — Chelsea are playing with the same system.

"It will be very difficult with the distance in points.

"I think Chelsea are too strong for the rest."

SANE LOOKS WISE CHOICE

SANE AND ABLE: Man City have lots to offer in attack

MAN CITY v STOKE CITY

MARKO Arnautovic's double at the weekend for Stoke landed us a nice bet against Boro.

In truth they eased to victory and those that took the advice never really had an anxious moment.

Tonight at the Etihad it will be a different story and it's hard to make a case for The Potters.

Man City are a different animal and right now I'd back them to beat anyone on a domestic front.

Pep Guardiola took time to settle, but now he's showing everyone just why he's regarded just about the best coach in the business.

Just look at how good Raheem Sterling is developing under Pep, he's been outstanding of late.

He's silenced his detractors in the best way possible, by churning out match winning performances with alarming regularity.

One of the big stories though to come out of City this year is Leroy Sane.

Deadly

Hands up if you thought £37m was a lot of money for the winger? While hacks around the country questioned the purchase, they now have to admit it was an incredible piece of business.

Sane is one of the most exciting players we have in the league and he is wowing City fans on a weekly basis.

Throw into the mix Silva, who is the king of assists and Aguero who's once again found his shooting boots and you have a deadly formula.

Don't get me wrong City still have their weaknesses, I am far from convinced with either Bravo or Caballero in goal.

Stones at the heart of defence is still learning and is prone to make the odd mistake, but going forward this City team is a thing of beauty.

Take City to win this match, move above Spurs in to second and ensure that Chelsea at least feel a little heat.

There is no way I can stick up a 1/4 shot for you to get on, so let's look at some other possibilities for us to win some money.

Let's go with Leroy Sane to score and City to win at mouthwatering 9/4 courtesy of Sky Bet.

BARCELONA v PSG

★ Paris hold a whopping 4-0 first-leg advantage and have history on their side, no team has ever progressed after losing the first game 4-0 in this competition.

This is Barcelona though and they are chasing a record 10th successive quarter-final place.

It looks a mountain to climb, but it would be foolish to completely write off Luis Enrique's men, they are formidable at home and have won their last 14 home games in this competition. In their three home fixtures this season they have a goal difference of 15-0.

STILL IN IT: Barcelona

If Paris rock up to the Nou Camp and believe it is job done, this could be their Achilles heel.

For once Barcelona have no pressure on them, everyone thinks that it's job done and they are out of this seasons competition.

I am far from sure it is and I'm inclined to have a few quid on them at 10/1 to rewrite history.

I could end up looking foolish, but at those odds with the world class players Barcelona have at their disposal anything is possible.

It's a massive call, we will need luck and most important of all an early goal, but they can do it.

EUROPA LEAGUE THURS

★ Let's have a cheeky treble on the Europa League action on Thursday. Leg 1, I'm going for Celta Vigo at 4/6.

I don't envisage Krasnodar giving them too many problems, do you? Leg 2, Gent managed to see off Spurs and and they've carried that form on winning their next two.

19/20 looks a cracking price to me, Genk will not be a pushover, but I expect Gent to get the job done. Leg 3, last but by no means least I'm jumping on Borussia Monchengladbach to beat their German rivals Schalke away.

Gladbach have been in scintillating form of late and at 12/5 it's too big not to tempt me in. A £10 treble pays £110 so get shouting them on!

BIG UPSET

★ Look away now Man United fans, FK Rostov at 4/1 at home are a huge price.

They may not be a huge name, but they are capable of a huge upset. This is a team that beat Bayern Munich 3-2 and Sparta Prague 4-0 in their last two home games.

United are not firing on all cylinders at the moment, just ask Bournemouth fans.

EUROPA LEAGUE: FK ROSTOV v MAN UTD

THURSDAY, 6PM LIVE ON BT SPORT 2

GRIEZ SAYS NO TO UNITED

Star 'stays' with Atletico

MANCHESTER United have been hit with a huge transfer blow after No1 target Antoine Griezmann pledged his future to Atletico Madrid.

It's a setback for boss Jose Mourinho as the Reds jet off to face Russian side FK Rostov in the Europa League.

Credible reports in the Spanish capital suggest that Griezmann has no interest in signing for the Red Devils — or any other Premier League club.

By JOHN ANTHONY

He is happy to be the star man at Atletico — and doesn't like the English weather!

Mourinho was willing to break the bank to bring the French forward to Old Trafford.

Despite him struggling to play alongside Paul Pogba for the national side, Griezmann is the man Mourinho wants to take over from Zlatan Ibrahimovic and Wayne Rooney long-term.

There were claims last month that the 25-year-old had already agreed terms with the Reds.

But things have changed — especially with the news that Atletico boss Diego Simeone is staying at the club.

Insiders say Griezmann is sick of talking about United and can't wait to play in the Spanish side's new stadium which opens in time for next season.

It means United will have to look elsewhere for their new talisman in attack.

With Ibrahimovic making noises about a big-money move to China or the USA, Mourinho needs to get a new man lined up this summer.

Bayern Munich striker Robert Lewandowski has now shot to the top of the Portugeezer's shopping list.

The problem is that the Poland hitman has just signed a huge new contract with the German giants.

But he's one of the biggest names on the planet when it comes to shirt sales so the Reds might still cough up around £80million to get the deal done.

That would be a massive amount to pay for a player who turns 29 this summer.

But he's looked as good as ever this season for Bayern, banging in 30 goals in 34 appearances.

It would help United's summer recruitment if they were in the Champions League and winning the Europa could be their best route into it.

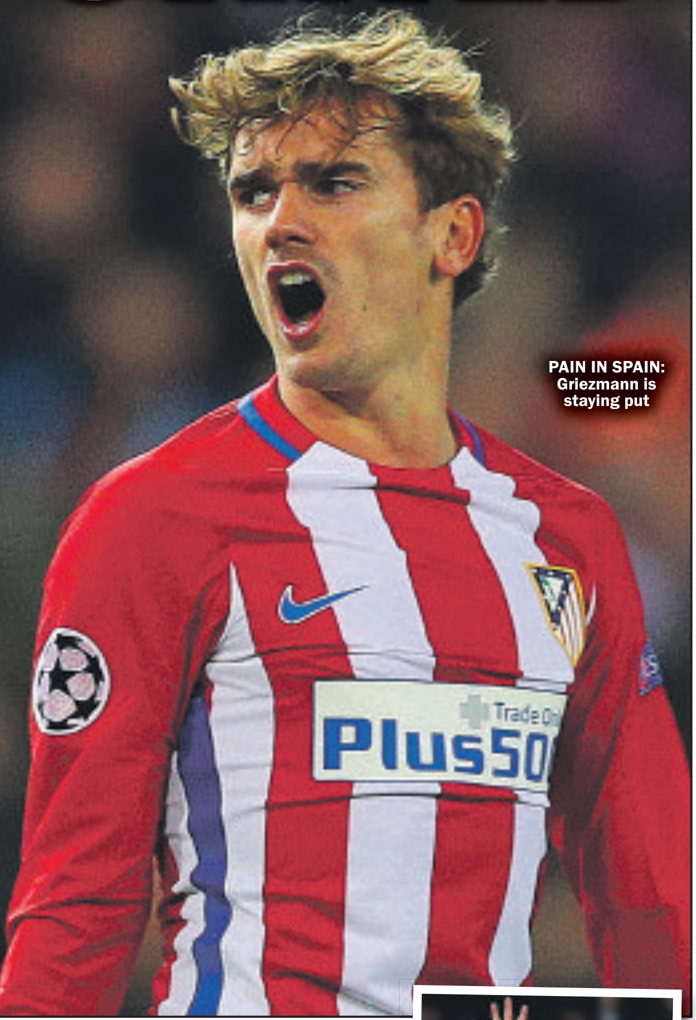
But Mourinho is not happy about venturing to Russia at this stage of the season.

He said: "It's a bad draw in every aspect. It's far and is difficult. It's far and comes in a bad period.

It's difficult because they are a very difficult team — they had a very good Champions League campaign.

"They had a very difficult group with Bayern and Atletico but they managed important results against them."

NEW TARGET: Lewandowski



PAIN IN SPAIN: Griezmann is staying put

SUAREZ: I BOTTLED IT AT KOP

By ANDY MILLOM

LUIS Suarez admits that he didn't have the guts to be Liverpool captain.

The controversial striker left the Kop for Barcelona three summers ago after almost firing the Reds to title glory.

He has now revealed that he was offered the chance to captain Liverpool in that final season.

But he bottled out — saying he didn't have what it takes to lead the side.

The Uruguayan even claims that he is too SHY to wear the armband.

The same Suarez who isn't too shy to sink his teeth in when it's needed! The striker said: "I like to play low profile, be one element among others.

"I'm here to lend a helping hand to the team, but making decisions is not really my thing.

"In Liverpool, I had the opportunity to be captain, and it was not natural to me.

"Even if people have a hard time believing it, I'm pretty shy. I'm not used to being put forward."

Liverpool's current captain Jordan Henderson says he's hating this season because the Reds are not playing in Europe.

After finishing in a poor eighth position last season, the Kop needed to win the Europa League to get back into the Champions League.

They got to the final but managed to blow a lead against Sevilla.

For Henderson, that's not acceptable for a club of Liverpool's size and ambition.

Watch

He barked: "I've hated Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday nights this season when other Premier League clubs have had big Euro matches and we've had to watch at home on the TV.

"People have said at times during this season that not playing in Europe is an advantage in the league.

"Well if it is, it's an advantage I don't ever want to have again because we want to qualify each and every season.

"I'm sure the Arsenal players feel exactly the same, wanting to have those big nights, playing against the best and creating big moments and memories.

"No-one here needs reminding of how important it is to Liverpool, and for these remaining 12 matches we have to play with that focus of trying to secure European football for the club next season."

KOP OUT: Suarez

NEW DEAL: Lukaku

Lukaku's a Toffee for five years

ROMELU Lukaku has penned a new five-year contract with Everton.

He is now the best paid player in the club's history on £100,000 a week.

The big striker has been in talks with the Toffees over a new deal since before Christmas.

Now the Belgian has signed on the dotted line and the contract will be set in stone tomorrow.

It ends months of speculation that the player signed from Chelsea for £28million three years ago could be going back to the Bridge.

Lukaku became Everton's leading Premier League scorer when he notched his 61st strike against Tottenham at the weekend.

His previous deal was set to end in 2019 but this contract ties him to Goodison Park until the end of 2022.

The 23-year-old's agent Mino Raiola has been saying for weeks that the deal would be done.

But it's not clear if there's a transfer release clause in the paperwork.

Lukaku is second behind Harry Kane in the Premier League's scoring chart for this season with 18 goals.

Now all the striker wants is some silverware.

He said: "At the end of the day you want to win trophies and you want to achieve something with your team.

At the moment, I'm not, so I have to keep working hard."

Mings in FA appeal

TYRONE Mings has launched an appeal with the FA against his violent conduct charge.

The Bournemouth defender is in hot water after an alleged stamp on Man United striker Zlatan Ibrahimovic.

He faces a six-game ban if found guilty of the offence which came in a bad-tempered draw at Old Trafford.

The FA issued a statement saying that the standard three-game ban for a straight red card wouldn't be enough if Mings was proved to have stamped on Zlatan deliberately.

It said: "The FA has submitted a claim that the standard punishment that would otherwise apply for the misconduct committed by the Bournemouth player is 'clearly insufficient'."

BARCA HAVE TO GO FOUR GLORY

MESSI: It's a tall order for Barca even with him playing

PSG should score at least one

NO club has ever overturned a 4-0 first leg deficit and qualified for the next round of the Champions League.

That gives some indication of the size of the task that Barcelona face when they entertain PSG in the Nou Camp this evening looking to make history.

The last time Barca didn't make it into the quarterfinals was back in the 2006/7 season when Liverpool beat them in the round of the last 16 and it is hard to make a case for them qualifying for the last eight.

Barcelona are 9/20 to win in 90 minutes, and it is 17/4 for the draw and 11/2 for a Paris win.

Luis Enrique has a perfect 14-0-0 record as Barca manager at home in the Champions League but they must throw caution to the wind and this PSG side are likely to hit the Spanish giants on the break.

If PSG score then Barca have to get at least six to qualify – it promises to be a wonderful occasion and spectacle and Barcelona to win and both teams to score at 29/20 is the recommendation.

In the other Champions League tie this evening Dortmund are looking to overcome a one-goal deficit against Benfica and the stats are against the Bundesliga giants with only nine of 30 teams going through when faced with a 1-0 defeat from the first leg.

Many top European clubs are, allegedly, courting Dortmund striker Pierre-Emerick Aubameyang but he has failed to score in his seven knock-out ties in the CL so far including a missed penalty in the first leg in Lisbon.

Tonight might be a good time to buck that trend against a Benfica side who have won their last seven games in all competitions and won't be lacking in confidence.

The fragile Marco Reus once again misses the game through injury but I still think the Bundesliga side will qualify despite the lack of an away goal.

Dortmund were the better side in Portugal and the 20/21 for the Germans to lead at both half and full-time is the recommendation.

Manchester United's home draw with Bournemouth last weekend (and subsequent ban for Zlatan?) has put a big dent in their top four hopes and they are out to 13/8 at BetVictor to finish the season in the top four.

United do have another string to their bow, however, with an automatic Champions League place going to the Europa League winners and United go to Russia tomorrow to meet a Rostov side who are meeting English opposition for the first time.

Rostov have only lost one of their last seven home games in Europe but the UEFA Cup/Europa League is the only major competition that United have never won. United are 3/4 at BetVictor to take a lead back to Old Trafford for the second leg in a game where I don't expect to see many goals.

United to win to nil is 7/4 with a 1-0 win for the Red Devils well backed and 5/1 from 6s.

United start the round of last 16 7/4 favourites to lift the Trophy in the Friends Arena Stockholm in the spring and it does seem strange to see just the one Premier League and one La Liga side left in the competition.

PRESSURE: Janssen

Vin could bag us a big win insists Kane

HARRY Kane says Vincent Janssen still has a massive part to play in Tottenham's season.

The 22-year-old has struggled to make an impact since his £19million summer move to the Lane from Alkmaar.

The Dutchman has managed just four goals in 29 outings — but NONE of those have come from open play.

But Kane has been impressed with his workrate and believes he has lots to offer in the Premier League.

Janssen had yet another of his substitute cameos against Everton at the weekend but his fellow striker is urging him to keep going.

Kane said: "He's just got to do what he did against Everton, even though it might have only been three or four minutes at the end.

"He held the ball up, won free-kicks and saw the game out for us and that's what he's got to do every time he gets an opportunity.

"He has to try to impress no matter how many minutes it is. I was the same, I tried to do as much as I could in that time.

"He's important, we are a team, we are a squad, every man is important."

Spurs boss Mauricio Pochettino gave Janssen a roasting last month, saying he had to work harder in training.

Since then, the manager has been happy with how the Dutchman has responded.

Mo Po said: "I am very happy with Vincent's reaction over the last few weeks and how he is training now.

"He realised the need to fight on the training ground and try to give me the trust and the confidence for after to give the possibility to play.

"I think he took a very good way now to try to fight for his place here. It is true he has a little problem in his foot."

HE'S OFF: Sanchez

English clubs barred from Alexis chase

ALEXIS Sanchez can leave Arsenal at the end of the season — but not for another Premier League club.

The Gunners seem resigned to losing their star striker after his relationship with Arsene Wenger broke down.

The Chilean was left to fester on the bench while Liverpool played the Gunners off the park in the first half at Anfield on Saturday. Wenger reluctantly threw him on at the interval but the game was already gone.

The 28-year-old is closing in on the final year of his current contract with Arsenal and there's ZERO chance of him signing another one.

That's despite an offer of £200,000 a week wages being on the table.

Sanchez has had enough of life under Wenger and will be one of the hottest transfer properties this summer.

While clubs like Liverpool, Man United and Chelsea would love to have him, Premier League clubs need not apply.

FALL-OUT: Wenger

Lesson

Only foreign sides will be listened to, with Paris St Germain looking firmly in the driving seat.

That said, were Sanchez willing to sit it out at the Emirates, there would be nothing Arsenal could do if he wanted to sign a pre-contract with an English side next year.

It seems that Wenger has learned his lesson from selling Robin Van Persie to Manchester United in 2012.

Despite all his earlier injury problems, RVP found his best form at Old Trafford and was the key to their last title success.

BAD MOVE: Van Persie

Wenger is still denying that there was any kind of training ground bust-up between him and Sanchez — although he did admit to dropping him for non-football reasons.

Asked if Sanchez was happy at the club, Wenger said: "What does it mean? The definition of a happy person is very difficult, I have never found an ideal situation.

"A happy perform on the football front is a player who comes out of a game and has won it and has performed well.

"Let's not project ourselves too far.

"Short-term happiness is easier to get that long-term happiness, so let's just focus on short term."

So that would be a no then Arsene!

The boss added: "Alexis has 15 months of his contract so the decision of will he be here or not will depend completely on Arsenal and not on anybody else."

PREMIER LEAGUE BIG PREVIEW:

BIG FEE: Sterling didn't come cheap when City bought him from Liverpool

MANCHESTER CITY v STOKE CITY

BRITAIN'S GOT TALENT!

But homegrown players cost too much says Pep

By PAUL THOMAS

PEP Guardiola would love to put English players at the heart of his Manchester City revolution — but he can't afford them.

The Etihad boss has already shown a commitment to homegrown talent by breaking the bank for Raheem Sterling and John Stones.

But the massive amounts he had to pay for them — around £50million each — means he has no choice but to look abroad as he continues to rebuild the team.

Guardiola said: "I would like to have English players, but they are so expensive.

"I would like to play with them. Sometimes it is not possible.

Bargain

"The club has worked with the academy for a long time to be thinking about the next years."

Mind you, it's not like they are giving them away on the continent. But one signing — Leroy Sane — is already coming good big time.

The £37m shelled out to Bayer Leverkusen for the 21-year-old is already looking like a real bargain.

Guardiola is happy with the young German — but adds that he can always improve.

Pep said: "The quality was there in the beginning. He's playing good, but also we're showing him a lot of clips - the not good things he is doing and what he can improve.

YOUNG TALENT: Sane and Stones are doing well

"You as journalists give a lot of credit to the managers. But without his qualities and skills, his willingness to be better, it would be impossible.

"Sane has good actions as a winger, but still has to be more 90 minutes more in the games. He still disappears a little bit.

"That's why it's nice to work with younger players because you can imagine what they are going to be like in the next years."

Meanwhile, Yaya Toure is revelling in his elder statesman role at City — and loves to keep the younger players on their toes.

Pep Guardiola calls him "grandpa" and the 33-year-old is only too happy to hear it — and some of the other players referring to him as "uncle Yaya".

It's a big turnaround for Toure, who was out in the cold with Guardiola for months, largely down to comments made about the City boss by his agent.

They patched things up at Christmas and he has been a key part of the side since.

And he intends to keep it that way. Toure said: "Sometimes when I am training and I am in front of them, I say, 'The uncle is in front, you need to follow me or pass me!'.

"But it's good. The atmosphere is fantastic at the moment — that's why you see the team winning at the moment, the winning mentality, the team is starting to get it now I think.

"It's good to keep going and set an example to the younger players. I say to them all the time at training, 'When I was younger like you, I carried on playing, game after game'.

"They say, 'No!' and I say, 'Look at me in 2010-11, I was playing all the games, non-stop'. Even if the manager said to have a rest, I said no.

Excited

"It's positive for the group, keeping going. If we want to win silverware this year, or maybe two trophies, we have to continue playing like this, and winning as well."

Toure has seen pretty much everything but he admits to being impressed by the current crop of young talent coming through City.

Leroy Sane, Raheem Sterling and Kevin De Bruyne — as well as the likes of Gabriel Jesus — are all in the early stages of their career but are already key men at the Etihad.

Toure added: "I'm very excited and impressed by them.

"I've played a lot of games in my career now and I think it's good because my intention when I came to this club was to make it bigger.

"Of course, we're not first, but I think we will get there because the team are starting to get it and that's good for the future."

LOST TIME: Berahino

Berahino ready to get back on track

SAIDO Berahino says he will show the Stoke fans his true talent after a tough time at West Brom.

The forward copped an eight-week ban earlier this season after testing positive for a recreational drug.

That was another low point in two years where he has squandered his obvious talent.

But now he has moved to Stoke, Berahino is desperate to make up for lost time.

He said: "It's easy to pick on people's wrongs but no one seems to focus on what's great.

"Sometimes you have to be stronger than that, put your hand up and accept that you made mistakes and try to move on as quick as possible.

"We know football doesn't wait for anybody. I'm stronger now.

"No one knows the full story — it's hard as a person that you're accused of all these headlines, and no one was there to see what happened.

"But you have to pay for your actions, it's done now and I'm just looking to put that behind me."

True

Berahino is adamant that he was putting in full effort for the Baggies before his £12million January move up the M6.

He added: "I love West Brom — they gave me the chance to be who I am now.

"It's a shame, and it hurts me the fans don't know the true story of what happened.

"I have to take it on the chin, some of my actions put me out there.

"But I can't thank Stoke enough, the interest they showed in me means a lot, it's time I paid them back now.

"I'm still young and learning in this game. I have a lot to prove to myself first of all, I've let myself down a lot, and I need to prove to myself I'm still that player when I was scoring 20 goals.

"I've been in this game for a while now, so I know what's right and wrong — I can't use that card any more.

"I'll be 24 this year, so it's time to pull my sleeves up. It's exciting times for me because in training I can see the quality we have at Stoke, it's incredible."

Zlat ban

ZLATAN Ibrahimovic has copped a three-match ban for his elbow on Bournemouth's Tyrone Mings.

He will miss Monday's FA Cup quarter-final against Chelsea plus Premier League games against West Brom and Middlesbrough.

An FA statement read: "Zlatan Ibrahimovic will serve a three-match suspension with immediate effect after he admitted an FA charge of violent conduct and accepted the standard penalty."

Mings is charged with stamping on Zlatan but has contested the six-match ban — see page 52 for more.

Craig takes over Foxes for season

FOX IN THE BOX SEAT: Craig Shakespeare

By JOHN ANTHONY

CRAIG Shakespeare has been given until the end of the season to prove his worth as Leicester boss.

The 53-year-old takes over from Claudio Ranieri after winning his two games as caretaker gaffer.

The champions' Thai owners have been impressed with the way Shakespeare has lifted the relegation-threatened Foxes.

They spanked Liverpool in his first game and fought back from a goal down to beat Hull at the weekend.

That has lifted them out of the relegation and it would be a surprise if they drop into the Championship.

Talks are scheduled towards the end of the season to discuss Shakespeare getting the job on a permanent basis.

He has been on the Leicester coaching staff since 2008 barring a brief spell at Hull and was part of Sam Allardyce's England backroom team.
